Parish News Update

Welcome to our New Chair

After the resignation of our Chair, Cathy Burrell. We welcome Helen Hayes to the chair position, and we are looking forward to seeing what her plans are for the Parish.

Yorkshire Water Works - Update

Yorkshire Water will be holding a meeting for local residents to explain their upcoming works and plans. Everyone is welcome to attend.

The meeting will take place at Pannal Primary School on Wednesday 22nd April. Please arrive from 6:00pm for a 6:15pm start.

The QR code below was issued by YW inviting you to ask your questions ahead of the meeting. This will assist them in answering them in the meeting.

Vacancy Notice for New Councillor

With Cathy stepping down from the parish council, we have a new position available within our team. If you are interested in becoming a member of your local Parish Council, please email parishclerk@pannalandburnbridge-pc.gov.uk

Litter Picking Day

The Parish Litter Picking Day is nearly here, so we have a little reminder about the details

Everyone who wants to take part will meet at St Roberts Church Car Park at 10am on Saturday 18th April. You will be given the equipment you need, such as bin bags and clippers. Please dress appropriately for the weather.

All ages are welcome and we cannot wait to see as many people there as possible.

Annual Parish Meeting

The Parish Council will be holding its Annual Meeting on Thursday 14th May at Pannal Village Hall. Attendees are welcome to arrive from 6:30pm for a 7:00pm start in the Function Room. We very much hope that many residents will be able to attend.
